Winners of the 2019 Clean Air Calendar Contest

(Davis, CA) – Twelve (12) student winners have been chosen in the Yolo-Solano Air Quality Management District’s (District) 2019 Clean Air Calendar Contest which ended March 30, 2018.

More than 190 K-12 entries were submitted throughout the District, from Vacaville to West Sacramento, Knights Landing to Davis, and everywhere in between, to share why clean air was important to them. Students used colored pencils, pens, crayons and paints to show their creativity and talent.

The following twelve winners were chosen in a two part voting process by staff and the District’s Board of Directors and will receive a $30 Amazon gift card, a Certificate of Achievement, and copies of the final 2019 calendar once printed:

- Delaysia Evans, 2nd grade from Tremont Elementary School in Dixon
- Joanna Liao, 3rd grade from North Davis Elementary School in Davis
- Neshama Adler-Eldridge, 4th grade from North Davis Elementary School in Davis
- Paige Tracy, 4th grade from North Davis Elementary School in Davis
- Bridget Berland, 4th grade from Patwin Elementary School in Davis
- Josephine Brant, 5th grade from Beamer Park Elementary School in Woodland
- Caitlyn Gonzalez, 6th grade from Browns Valley Elementary School in Vacaville
- Evelyn Wu, 7th grade from Bridgeway Island Elementary School in West Sacramento
- Jessie Weissich, 8th grade from Da Vinci Junior High School in Davis
- Avery Burstein, 11th grade from Davis School for Independent Study
- Kevin Valencia, 11th grade from Davis School for Independent Study
- Brooke Lee, 12th grade from Davis School for Independent Study

“A big thank you goes out to the 198 students who created such amazing artwork,” said Public Information Officer Jenny Tan. “The calendar contest is a great and engaging way to teach youth about air pollution and why we all need to keep the air clean.”

The District’s 2019 Calendar will be printed in the fall of 2018 and copies will be mailed to the students.
